

Next Generation Category Management

The Power Of Information Technology To Focus On The Consumer

Gyanendra (Jerry) Singh and Robert Blattberg

Category Management Inc. and Kellogg School of Management Northwestern University

Copyright © Category Management Inc.

Table of Contents

NEXT GENERATION CATEGORY MANAGEMENT

Chapter 1	Linking Category Management to Competitive Strategies	13
Introduction		13
Retailing Strategy		13
Category Management		14
Evolution and Implications of Category Management		15
Competitive Strategies		19
Developing Category Management Capability		22
Strategy Issues for Category Management Implementation		23
Conclusion		24
Chapter 2	Limitations of Current Category Management Systems	25
Introduction		25
Current Category Management Focus		25
Current Limitations		27
Organization		27
People		28
Information systems		29
Reliance on manufacturers		29
Lack of creativity		29
Very limited understanding of the consumer		30
No knowledge of category drivers		30
Lack of knowledge of true costs		30
Poor execution		31
Causes of Limitations		31
What is Needed?		32
Cost effective		33
Focused on the consumer		33
Retailers can set the process		34
Results are tracked		34
Leads to continuous improvement		34
Conclusion		34

Chapter 3                    Integrating Category Management & Customer Management: How the Consumer enters the Category Management Process                    35

Introduction	35
Customer Management	35
Principles of Customer Management	37
Customer Management Business Process	38
Marketing Mix for Customer Management	40
Integration with Category Management	42
Marketing Mix	45
Conclusion	46

Chapter 4                    Cornerstones of Category Management                    47

Introduction	47
The Category Management Process	47
Costs	49
Consumer	52
Category Drivers	54
Competition	56
Improving Category Management Practices Based on the 4 Cs	57
Information systems	58
Organization capability	59
Conclusion	62

Chapter 5                    Information Technology for Category Management                    63

Introduction	63
Category Management Business Process	63
Analytical Requirements	64
Data Requirements	65
Category definition	65
Category role	65
Category assessment	66
Category balanced scorecard	67
Category strategies	67
Information Systems Requirements	67
Information Infrastructure for Category Management	69
Computing and Communications Platform	69

Data Architecture	69
Implementation Challenges	72
Implementation Process	73
Conclusion	74

Chapter 6                      Application Software for Category Management                      75

Introduction	75
Category Planning	75
Implementing a Category Planning Application	76
Challenges Encountered	77
Implementing an Automated System	78
Identify Category Business Planning Templates and Application Requirements	79
Category Planning Database Application	79
Data Sources, Availability and Responsibility for Providing this Data	82
Understand Input File Formats	86
Create Input Files	94
Use Category Planning Database Application	95
Import data files	95
Perform system calculations	95
Export to spreadsheet	96
Conclusion	96

Chapter 7                      Category Plan Monitoring & Tactical Applications                      97

Introduction	97
Category Plan Monitoring	97
Assortment Planning	103
Pricing Management	105
Promotion Management	110
Space Management	112
Product Supply Management	120
Conclusion	123

Chapter 8                      Data Warehouse Based Category Management Systems                      125

Introduction	125
What is a Data Warehouse?	126
Building Data Warehouses	128
The data modeling process	128
Data Sources for Category Management	132

The Data Model for Category Management	133
Product	134
Time	139
Geography	143
Causal Data	144
Facts	147
Logical and Physical Data Models	151
The Physical Data Model	155
Data Engineering	156
Extraction	156
Aggregation	157
Loading	159
Data Engineering Issues	161
Implementation Process	165
Conclusion	169

Chapter 9                    The Design of the New Category Management System                    171

Introduction	171
Concepts Underlying the New Category Management System	171
Implementing Next Generation Category Management	172
Improving the Category Management Process	177
Clustering	178
Simplification and customization	179
Measurement and feedback of results	180
Category tactics	181
Roles of Category Partners	182
Conclusion	184

Chapter 10                    What does a Category Plan look like?                    185

Overview	185
Introduction to Super Jim's	185
Corporate & Department Goals	185
Super Jim's Customer Service Strategy	186
Category Definition	187
Category Product Grouping Process	189
Category Definition Summary	191
Category Role	191
Cross Category & Qualitative Analysis	194
Category Role Summary	196
Assessment	196
Consumer Needs	197
Consumer Demographics	198
Consumer Purchase Timing	200

Consumer Purchase Behavior	202
Consumer Purchase Behavior—Causal Activity	203
Trends and Market Shares	204
Market Share Gap Analysis	206
Market Share Gap Quadrant Chart	207
Profit Contribution	208
Profit Contribution Quadrant	209
Retail Asset Performance	210
GMROI Quadrant	212
Product Supply Analysis	213
Opportunities & Actions Worksheet	214
Scorecard Development	215
Category Strategies	217
Category Stratogram	219
Category Tactics	219
Assortment	220
Market Coverage	221
Market Coverage Analysis—Segment Fragmentation	221
Market Coverage Analysis—Competitive Market Coverage	223
Market Coverage Analysis—Sales and Profit Productivity	224
Market Coverage Analysis—Coverage Cut-off	225
Coverage Cut-Off Summary	226
Deletion Validation	226
Addition Validation	228
Assortment Summary	229
Pricing	230
Pricing Analysis—Promoted Price Gap	230
Pricing Analysis—Non-Promoted Price Gap	231
Pricing Summary	232
Promotion	233
Promotion Analysis—Best Weeks/Worst Weeks	234
Promotion Analysis—Promotion Performance	235
Promotion Analysis - Price Reduction Analysis History	236
Promotion Summary	237
Shelf Presentation	238
Shelving Analysis—Competitive	238
Internal Space Analysis	239
Shelving Analysis—Category Shelving Tactic	241
Shelving Summary	242
Category Tactogram	243
Plan Implementation	244
Monitor Performance	245
Category Review	246